DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-57, 60, 62-63, 65, 66-68, 70, 73, 77-80, 82-86, 89-90, 91 and 92, drawn to an isolated nucleic acid molecule comprising a sequence encoding a flavonoid 3', 5' hydroxylase, a construct, a method of producing a transgenic plant, or a genetically modified plant comprising said nucleic acid molecule.

Group II, claim(s) 58, 64, 66-67, 69-70, 81, and 91, drawn to method for producing a transgenic plant with reduced F3'5'H activity or altered inflorescence, or a genetically modified plant having reduced F3'5'H activity or altered inflorescence.

Group III, claim(s) 59, and 61, drawn to a method for producing a genetically modified plant with reduced indigenous or existing F3'5'H activity, said method comprising altering F3'5'H gene through modification of the indigenous sequences via homologous recombination from an appropriately altered F3'5'H gene, or wherein said method produces a flowering plant exhibiting altered inflorescence.

Group IV, claim(s) 71 and 72 drawn to an extract from a genetically modified plant or part thereof.

Group V, claim(s) 74-76 drawn to an isolated recombinant F3'5'H or peptide having F3'5'H activity.

Group VI, claim 87 drawn to an isolated molecule comprising a promoter of SEQ ID NO: 5.

Group VII, claim 88 drawn to an isolated molecule comprising a promoter of SEQ ID NO: 30.

The technical feature linking Groups I-VII appear to be a nucleic acid sequence encoding a flavonoid 3',5' hydroxylase. However, Holton et al. (WIPO, WO 94/28140, Published 8 December, 1994; Applicant's IDS) disclose a nucleic acid sequence encoding a flavonoid 3',5' hydroxylase (see abstract). The reference also discloses making transgenic plants overexpressing said nucleic acid sequence (see abstract). The reference also discloses detecting delphinidin or delphinidin based molecules in a rose petal of said transgenic plant as measured by a chromatographic technique (see pg 22, lines 15-22).

Therefore, the technical feature linking the inventions of Groups I-VII does not constitute a special technical feature as defined by PCT Rule 13.2, as it does not define a contribution over the prior art.

Applicants are reminded that different nucleotide sequences and amino acid sequences are structurally distinct chemical compounds and are unrelated to one another. These sequences are thus deemed to normally constitute different inventive concepts.

Applicant is also required to elect one nucleic acid sequence and its encoded protein with the elected Group of claims. In the instant case, for Groups I-V, one nucleotide sequence and its encoded protein from the following SEQ ID NOs: 9-18, 20-21, 26-27, 31 and 32. For Group I, Applicant is also required to elect one promoter sequence from SEQ ID NOs: 5 and 30.

Accordingly, Groups I-VII are not so linked by the same or a corresponding special technical feature as to form a single general inventive concept.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
